The distribution of this Financial Services Guide by One Horizon has been authorised by Bendigo Financial Planning Limited.

Introduction

This Financial Services Guide (FSG) is designed to provide you with a clear understanding of what you can expect from Bendigo Financial Planning Limited ABN 81 087 585 073 (BFP) and Sarah Wood Pty Ltd ACN 154 922 684 t/a One Horizon Consulting ('One Horizon'). In particular, the FSG is designed to:

- assist you in deciding whether to use the financial services offered by BFP and One Horizon;
- inform you about the remuneration and other financial benefits that may be received by BFP and One Horizon and related persons in connection with the financial services provided;
- provide information about any interests, associations or relationships that could influence the advice given to you; and
- inform you about the dispute resolution procedures and how you can access them.

In addition to receiving this FSG, you may also be given a Statement of Advice (SOA) and/or a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS). An SOA is provided when you receive personal advice. An SOA sets out, amongst other things, the personal financial advice which has been given to you together with the fees and commissions you may be charged for the advice. A PDS is a document which sets out the key features, benefits, risks and fees in relation to a particular financial product. A PDS will be given to you when a particular financial product is recommended to you.

Please see "Other Documents You May Receive" for additional information on the SOA and PDS.

About Bendigo Financial Planning Limited

BFP is the financial planning arm of Bendigo and Adelaide Bank Limited (the Bank) and is part of the Bendigo and Adelaide Bank Group (the Group). BFP's Australian Financial Services Licence Number is 237898.

BFP has authorised One Horizon to act as its authorised representative (Authorised Representative no. 1233538) when providing financial planning services. One Horizon planner has the appropriate expertise to deliver financial advice that is appropriate to your needs. One Horizon is also supported in its ongoing professional needs by BFP

Who is responsible for the advice I receive?

BFP, as the holder of an Australian Financial Services Licence, is responsible for the financial advice provided to you. Your One Horizon financial planner is a sub-authorised representative of BFP and One Horizon is an authorised representative of BFP

One Horizon's advisory service

One Horizon financial planner is qualified to provide advice on a range of financial matters, including:

- Investment management
- Superannuation
- Risk management*
- Retirement planning
- Aged care
- Centrelink advice
- Estate planning.
- Direct shares

In addition, One Horizon also provides a suite of professional services to help structure such matters as Self Managed Super Funds, Trusts and Wills

One Horizon has been authorised by BFP to provide advice and deal in the following financial products:

- Deposit and payment products (not including non-cash payment facilities)
- Government debentures, stocks or bonds (dealing only)
- Life products including investment life insurance and life insurance products
- Interests in managed investment schemes (including investor directed portfolio services)
- Securities
- Superannuation
- General insurance products*
- Standard margin lending facilities
- Retirement savings account products

* Your One Horizon financial planner is authorised to provide general insurance advice but this authorisation only extends to CGU's consumer credit insurance product.

Your One Horizon financial planner may recommend products from BFP's approved products list, which you can request to see at any time.

Who does BFP act for when financial services are provided on its behalf by One Horizon?

When financial services are provided to you by One Horizon on BFP's behalf, BFP will be acting for itself.

Will the advice be tailored to my personal needs?

Your One Horizon financial planner is obliged by law to act in your best interests. The advice you receive must take into consideration your individual investment objectives, financial situation and particular needs.

In order for One Horizon to offer you the most appropriate advice, you will be required to provide details of your personal objectives, current financial situation and any relevant information.

Other documents you may receive

As part of the financial advice process, you will receive a number of important documents. Please refer to the following definitions for a description of the documents you are likely to receive:

Financial Needs Analysis (FNA)

An FNA is a set of questions to help One Horizon determine and understand your financial needs, goals and objectives. The information collected is used to form the basis for the advice and recommendations.

A Letter of Engagement (LOE)

A letter of engagement is issued when you choose to obtain advice from One Horizon. It outlines:

- the scope of advice and recommendations;
- an estimate of the fees and charges; and
- your authorisation to proceed.

Statement of Advice (SOA)

An SOA is provided when you receive personal advice. The SOA will include the following information:

- the nature of the advice given and the basis of the recommendations;
- information about fees and commissions that may be received for the advice; and
- any associations, relationships or interests that may influence the advice provided.

Where the personal financial product advice relates to a basic deposit product, non-cash payment facility or travellers cheques, an SOA will not be provided.

Record of Advice (ROA)

After providing you with initial advice in an SOA, any subsequent personal advice that we provide to you will be documented in an ROA, provided there has not been any significant change in your personal circumstances on the basis on which the initial advice was provided.

If further or additional advice is provided by your One Horizon financial planner, you are able to obtain a written copy of that advice (if it has not already been given) by contacting your One Horizon financial planner and requesting a copy in writing.

Product Disclosure Statement (PDS)

The PDS sets out the key features, significant benefits, risks and fees associated with the financial product.

You will receive a PDS when a recommendation on certain financial products is made (other than securities) or a financial product is issued.

Terms and Conditions

Terms and Conditions will be provided to you if One Horizon recommends, arranges, issues or offers to issue a basic deposit product to you. Similar to a PDS, this document sets out the key terms, features, fees and charges associated with the product.

Service Agreement

The Service Agreement is a formal contract that outlines the benefits, services and support provided by One Horizon for ongoing service to you. It is One Horizon's commitment to provide you with a holistic approach to financial planning. A Service Agreement will be provided when you enter into an ongoing service arrangement with One Horizon.

Annual fee disclosure statement (FDS)

The annual fee disclosure statement provides information on the ongoing fee arrangements you have entered into with One Horizon. The annual fee disclosure statement will contain information relating to ongoing fees paid and the services you received or were entitled to receive. The annual fee disclosure statement will be provided every 12 months or as otherwise permitted under the law.

Fees and charges and benefits to third parties

What fees are payable to BFP for financial planning services provided to me?

Initial consultation

The initial consultation is at One Horizon's cost.

Initial advice fees

An advice service fee will be charged for the preparation of a SOA. The fee will take into account the complexity of your needs, the amount of research involved and the time taken to complete the plan. The fee for preparing and implementing a financial plan generally ranges from $500 to $10,000, although there may be a higher charge for more complex requirements. The initial advice fee will be fully disclosed at the time personal advice is given to you (i.e. in the SOA) or as soon as practicable thereafter.

Payment methods available for the SOA and implementation fee include a direct payment in the form of an advice service fee (i.e. cheque and BPAY) or a deduction from the funds you invest with the product provider/s whose product/s One Horizon recommends.

Ongoing advice fees

One Horizon provides an ongoing service to ensure the advice you receive remains relevant to your needs at each stage of your life. By having a Service Agreement in place you will continue to receive ongoing service from your One Horizon financial planner including the professional services provided by One Horizon and BFP's administration, training, research and compliance teams.

Depending on the complexity of the advice and the frequency of reviews, the ongoing advice fee for a Service Agreement generally ranges from $1,000 to $5,000. For more complex requirements there may be a higher charge.

Fees for ongoing service can be either debited from your nominated bank account or alternatively from your nominated investment by the product provider on a monthly, quarterly or half yearly basis (as selected by you). The Service Agreement and ongoing service fee is reviewed annually. The ongoing advice fee will be fully disclosed when ongoing personal advice is provided to you or as soon as practicable thereafter.

Hourly advice fee

As an alternative to paying the initial advice fee and the ongoing advice fee, you may choose to pay One Horizon's hourly advice fee which is determined on the basis of the number of hours the One Horizon financial planner spends on giving you advice. As at the date of this FSG, the hourly rate will generally be up to $350 per hour including GST. If hourly fees are to be charged, they will be fully disclosed at the time the personal advice is provided to you or as soon as practicable thereafter.

Upfront insurance commissions

Where permitted by law, the commission will depend on the type of product, issuer and level of insurance required but is in a range of 0% to 142.45% of the first year's premium. Any commission received by One Horizon will be fully disclosed at the time personal advice is given to you or as soon as practicable thereafter.

Ongoing commission

Where permitted by law, some product providers may pay ongoing commissions to BFP for the duration of your investment. BFP will pass on these commissions to One Horizon. These commissions cover the cost of providing support to you.

The rate of commissions will depend on the product, the services provided and the amount invested. Any commission received by us will be disclosed at the time personal advice is given to you or as soon as practicable thereafter.

Example: If $10,000 is invested in a product where the insurance provider pays 4% initial and 0.4% ongoing commissions, One Horizon will receive $400 at the time the investment is placed and 0.4% of the balance per year thereafter. These amounts will be taken into account when determining the fee for your Service Agreement.

The ongoing commissions can be deducted by the insurance provider from your investment and/or annual insurance premium. This commission can be paid to One Horizon weekly, monthly, quarterly or annually depending on the product.

Note: All figures quoted are inclusive of GST.

Any commission received by One Horizon will be fully disclosed at the time personal advice is given to you or as soon as practicable thereafter.

Benefits from share trades

One Horizon does not execute share trades on your behalf but refers you to a broker to do so. The amount payable on share trades to brokers is based on, and will depend on, the location of the market in which the shares are to be traded and the size of the share transaction.

Where permitted by law, the brokers One Horizon refers you to charge an amount of between 0.6% and 2.2% of the investment amount (with a minimum of between $66 and $220) per transaction. The broker pays One Horizon an amount, based on the amount charged by the broker, which amount may range between 0% and 50%.

Any benefits received by One Horizon will be disclosed at the time personal advice is given to you or as soon as practicable thereafter.

What remuneration does One Horizon receive for providing financial services to me?

All fees (including commissions, benefits from share trades and advice fees) are payable to BFP.

BFP will pay One Horizon an amount equal to 90% of all fees received by BFP (after commissions are paid to Community Bank branches or Agencies of the Bank - see below) in return for the financial planning services One Horizon provides to you. BFP will retain 10% of all fees received.

The remuneration received by One Horizon will be fully disclosed at the time the personal advice is given to you (i.e. in the SOA) or as soon as practicable thereafter.

How are One Horizon financial planner remunerated?

One Horizon financial planner is a salaried employee of One Horizon and are not remunerated on a commission basis.

Where permitted by law, your One Horizon financial planner may also receive non-monetary benefits from product providers, such as tickets to events or corporate promotional merchandise.

All fees associated with the advice you receive are clearly disclosed in your SOA along with any ongoing service costs.

What remuneration is payable to referrers?

Generally, if a Community Bank® Branch or an Agency of the Bank refers you to One Horizon, the Branch/Agency will receive a referral fee comprising 40% of the initial advice service fee paid to BFP and up to 0.25% per annum of investment/superannuation funds under management. Any amounts paid to Community Bank® Branches or Bendigo Bank Agencies will be debited from the amount paid to BFP and will not be an extra charge to you.

If you were referred to One Horizon by a third party other than a Community Bank® branch or an Agency of the Bank, One Horizon may pay a referral fee (of up to 40% of the net amount received by One Horizon) to the referrer. If any referral fee is paid, the referral fee will be fully disclosed in at the time the personal advice is given to you or as soon as practicable thereafter.

Other benefits

BFP may receive sponsorship from Fund Managers or Life Companies. This money is paid out of the Fund Managers' and/or Life Companies' own resources.

Sponsorship is paid to BFP to further educate and enable professional development of our financial planners. Any sponsorship received is disclosed in our Benefits Register. If you wish to view the Benefits Register, your financial planner can provide a copy

BFP may receive volume based incentives of up to 0.33% from Fund Managers and up to 15% from Life Companies subject to meeting minimum targets. These incentives are paid out of Fund Managers' or Life Companies' own resources.

The payments only apply to arrangements entered into prior to 1 July 2013 and growth on those arrangements until 30 June 2014.

One Horizon does not share directly in sponsorship and volume based incentive payments received by BFP

All payments/benefits will be disclosed in the advice document and available on request.

Payments to associated companies and product providers of BFP

The Bank is the issuer of deposit and payment products and will receive remuneration in its capacity as the issuer of those products.

The Group comprises a number of wholly owned subsidiaries including Sandhurst Trustees Limited, Rural Bank Limited and Leveraged Equities Limited. These subsidiaries have financial products listed on BFP's approved products list. If you acquire a product issued by a company in the Group, the relevant company may receive product fees in relation to that product, including commissions, referral fees, entry fees, management fees, exit fees or any other fees specified in the PDS or the disclosure document for that particular product. These product fees may benefit other Group members or associates.

Depending on the product selected, the remuneration paid to different associated companies and product providers of BFP may vary between a fixed fee, a percentage of amount invested, a performance based fee or a combination of different types of arrangements. The amount of any remuneration paid to different associated companies and product providers of BFP will be fully disclosed in at the time the personal advice is given to you (i.e. in the SOA) or as soon as practicable thereafter.

Associations and relationships

What are BFP's associations and relationships?

BFP is a subsidiary of the Bank and part of the Group.

The Group comprises a number of wholly owned subsidiaries including Sandhurst Trustees Limited, Rural Bank Limited and Leveraged Equities Limited. These subsidiaries have financial products listed on BFP's approved products list.

BFP's approved products list also includes financial products issued by other non-related companies.

The Bank is also a joint venture partner in Homesafe Solutions Pty Ltd.

BFP occasionally receives financial support from fund managers for professional development and training. Any sponsorship received is used to fund the cost of venues and speakers and is not applied to entertainment. Details of any such sponsorship are included in the Public Benefits Register, which can be provided on request.

Your right to privacy

We are committed to ensuring the privacy and security of your personal information. All personal information is handled in accordance with the Privacy Act, as set out in the Privacy Disclosure Statement below. Additional information on our information management practices can be obtained at www.bendigobank.com.au or by contacting our Customer Help Centre on 1300 361 911.

We aim to ensure that the personal information we retain about you is accurate, relevant, complete and up-to-date. Accordingly, if you have any concerns about the completeness or accuracy of the information we have about you, or would like to access or amend your information, call us on the above number.

What information does Bendigo Financial Planning keep about me?

We maintain a record of your personal profile which includes details of your investment objectives, financial situation and needs. We also maintain records of any recommendations made to you. If you wish to view your file you can ask your One Horizon Financial Planner and we will make arrangements for you to do so.

Privacy Disclosure Statement

We collect and hold personal information about you that may include sensitive information (such as health information). Your personal information will be used to provide you with financial services including:

- The preparation/review of your Statement of Advice
- The provision of financial planning advice
- Making/reviewing securities and investment recommendations

We may also use your personal information to perform our business functions (for example internal audit, operational risk, product development and planning).

We may need to collect personal information about a third party from you as part of this application. If we do this, you agree you will advise that person that we have collected their information, and that in most cases they can access and seek correction of the information we hold about them.

We may also seek verification of your identification and any identification documents from independent sources (e.g. your employer) and/ or third party service providers.

If you do not provide the requested information, we may not be able to provide you with the services you require.

Where required, we may disclose your information to our financial planners and other professionals within the Group, our agents and specialist advisers such as accountants and solicitors, organisations to whom we outsource functions such as mailing and printing houses and IT providers, intermediaries, insurance providers, superannuation trustees and product providers in connection with the purposes detailed above. Other disclosures usually include joint account holders, account operators and account applicants and government authorities.

Some of the organisations we disclose your personal information to may be located overseas. Where an organisation is located overseas we will either take reasonable steps to ensure that it complies with Australian privacy laws or we will seek your consent to the disclosure.

We may also share your personal information with related companies in the Group and our joint venture partners so that we can tell you about products and services available from us or other companies within the Group.

If you do not want to receive this information, call the Bendigo Bank Customer Help Centre on 1300 361 911.

In the event we consider it necessary to use or disclose information about you for purposes other than those detailed above or related purposes, we will seek your consent.

For further details, please refer to our privacy policy at www.bendigobank.com.au. Our Privacy Policy contains information about:

- how you can access and seek correction of your personal information;
- how you can complain about a breach of the privacy laws by us and how we will deal with a complaint;
- if we disclose personal information to overseas entities, and where practicable, which countries those recipients are located in.

Compensation and insurance arrangements

BFP is required by the Corporations Act to operate a compensation arrangement which is designed to compensate retail clients for losses they may suffer as a result of a breach by it or its representatives in respect of the provision of financial services. These compensation arrangements are in accordance with and satisfy the requirements for compensation arrangements under section 912B of the Corporations Act.
